LARGE PARTY FOR MISS ROXANA BOWEN

Dinner and Dance at Sherry's Given by Debutante's Mother.

ARMY AND NAVY GUESTS

Clarence Winthrop Bowen of 5 xty-third street gave a dinner and last evening at Sherry's for her nte daughter, Miss Roxana Win-At the dinner, which was red in the green room, there were resent Mr. and Mrs. Moses J. Went-orth of Chicago, who arrived yesterity for the occasion; the Misses Phyllis rown, Hope H. Colgate, Caryl Hackstaff, delaide Parker, Sylvia Holt, Constance eabody and Martha Clover Todd of this transfer of the Woodward of Wilkes. chapody and Martin H. Woodward of Wilkes-city, Marion H. Woodward of Wilkes-parre, Pa.; T. Gardner Aspinwall of Bal-imore, Clifford Voorhees, Bradley L. Coley, William E. Pallmer, Russell K. Chapperty, Eldon Harvey, Albert H. Ely, Ir., and Horace McKinley Hatch.

following the dinner there was a dance the small ballroom, Mrs. Bowen and daughter receiving their guests in the There were decorations of pink wers, and Frantzen's orchestra played the dancing. A seated supper was served in the banquet suite shortly after midnight, after which dancing was resumed. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. Grant La Farge, Dr. and Mrs. Phineas Hillhouse Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Harkness, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Russell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Philip Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Alder, Mr. and Mrs. H. Schuyler Cammann, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Weist, Mr. and Mrs. George Austin Morrison, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Vosburg Irwin and Mrs. John Vosburg Irwin and Mrs. served in the banquet suite shortly after John Vosburg Irwin and Mr Henry T. Shelton of Paris.

and Mrs. John Vosburg Irwin and Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Shelton of Paris.

There were also present the Misses Marletta Chapin, Gertrude Geer, Sarah Schuyler Butler, Janet Adriance, Ernestine Göver, Marie de Tours Boynton, Margaret French, Julia Gilbert, Olivia Erdmann, Muriel Lorillard Conkling, Mary Krances Gilbert, Gertrude Welling, Vieva Fisher, Estelle Clark, Augusta Dixon, Lentilhon and Almy Ghford, Anne Woodin, Claire Van Lennep, Elizabeth Gunn, Dorothy Keene Taylor, Noeline Haskins, Dorothy Hollister, Lisa Todd, Eleanor Taylor, Ruth and Faith Hayden, Margaret and Louise Trevor, Cordelia Hepburn, Mary Sturges, Dorothy Bigelow, Esther Colt, Agnes Claffin, Dorothea Abbott, Susette Herter, Penetope Sears, Rita Sturgis, Dorothy Haight, Laura Ingalls, Marjorie and Eugenie Rand, Lily Robertson, Catherine Ketcham, Margaret Seton Porter, Elizabeth Kendall. Sally Parker, Kathryn Montgomery, Frederika Peterson, Margaret Overton and Elizabeth Mosle.

Among the men were Harry Cushing

Among the men were Harry Cushing Among the men were Harry Cushing 3d, Carl F. Boker, Jr., Hermann D. Boker, Robert M. Jackson, Raymond Chauncey, Theron R. Strong, Charles J. Nourse, Paul Chapin, H. Galatin Pell, Thomas H. Cornell, R. McCoskry Butt, Havemeyer Butt, W. Travers Jerome, Jr., H. Van Rensselaer Fairfax, Joel E. Fisher, Cortilles Les Bailey, V. Schwerzen Marketter, 1988, 198 SOCIETY AT BALL FOR Commentation Mail, George P. Montality and Service Andrew Processes and Montage Processes

Mrs. Henry H. Weinfalle of Leaving Park, N. J. The other guests were the Misses Vera Cravath, Mary Tweed, Martha Gay, Sylvia Holt, Roxana W. Bowen, Cornelia Peabody, Sylvia Hyde, Emmalena Sizer, Eunice Clapp and

West Ninetieth street have announced the engagement of their daughter. Miss Dorothy Conron. to James Butler, Jr., of this city. Miss Conron was introduced to society in December. She was graduated last June from the Maplehurst School of the Sacred Heart Convent. Mr. Butler was graduated from the Manhattan or supper and a dance.

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

rs. Alfred Bishop Mason of 150 West Fifty-ninth street will give receptions on the Congregational Church, South Nor-Mice Luisita Leland will give a lunch for young people on January 30 at home, 563 Park avenue. Mrs. H. de Berkeley Parsons will give dinner this evening at her home, 26 East Sixty-first street.

In New York To-day,

Stevens Institute of Technology Ajumni, danier, Hotel Astor, 7 P. M.
Address by Walter Lincoln Sears on "Unemployment—Its Causes and Cure," Fifth Avenue Restaurant, 7 P. M.
Republican Club, Saturday discusses. Avenue Restaurant, 7 P. M.

Should the Federal Government Own to divide their time between Minneapolis Operate or Only Supervise the Inter- and New Britain. gie Hall, 8:15 P. M. Twenty-four Carat Club, dinner, Wai-

Ossociated Alumnie of Barnard College, Drama League Ready to Find Audi-heon, Hotel Savov elic League, dinner, Hotel Astor, 7:30 to west Forty-fourth street, 2:15 P. M.

Great class plays at a theatre here.

The Drama League now has a member-ship of more than 1,600 in New York.

management for the occasion, was used.

Weed,
We Opera Company, danced several Greek manship. dances, and Miss Lorraine Mishler of

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Conron of 263 dances were executed in the centre of the d the ballroom floor, while a spotlight played Joline Library Sale Ends With Total Miss from the balcony. At midnight supper was served in the fountain room, which was decorated with palms, holly leaves and tiny colored elec-tric bulbs. During supper there was tric bulbs. music by a Neapolitan orehestra.

Mayor and Mrs. John Purroy Mitchel were among the guests of the evening, and among the patronesses, most of whom were present, were Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting, Mrs. Philip M. Lydig, Mrs. Willard The wedding of Miss Dorothy Gibb, daughter of Mrs. Arthur Gibb, to Baches McEvers Whitlock will take place this afternoon in St. Thomas's Church. A reception will follow at 14 East Fifty-fifth street.

Mrs. John King Van Rennsselaer will give a reception this evening at her home, 134 East Ninety-fifth street.

The third for this season of the Satur-Value Wrs. Lindsley Tappin, Mrs. G. Lindsley Tappin, Mrs. Charles Lindsley Lindsle The third for this season of the Satur-ay Evening Dances will take place to-Knight B. Wade, Mrs. Thomas T. Gaunt.

The third for this season of the Saturday Evening Dances will take place to-night at Delmonico's.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Steinbruegge, who have been in London for several months, will sail for New York on the Adriatic on January 27.

Mrs. Oliver Gould Jennings gave a party last evening at the New Amsterdam Theatre for her niece, Miss Esther Jennings Auchincioss, and for Miss Louise Russell Hoadley, debutantes of the winter. After the performance of "Watch Your Step" Mrs. Jennings took her guests to her home, 7 East Seventy-second street, for supper and a dance.

High H. Wade, Mrs. Thomas T. Gaunt. Knight H. Wade, Mrs. Thomas T. Gaunt. Mrs. Alexander M. Thackara, Jr. Mrs. Charles D. Lathrop, Mrs. Arthur J. Cumnock, Mrs. James P. Lee. Among those who assisted as members of the floor committee were Lindsley Tappin, Richard Peters, Charles D. Wetmore, Helpin H. Wade, Mrs. Thomas T. Gaunt. Knight H.

Andrew G. Dickinson, J. The proceeds will be sent to the Association for the Improvement of the Condition of the Poor in New York.

Miss Emilie Nash, daughter of Mrs. times H. Nash, will be married to Gardi-er Trowbridge of this city this afternoon GATES'S WIDOW TO WED JAN. 27. Will Become Bride of Harold Lee

Judd of New Britain, Conn. Minneapolis, Jan. 22.—Mrs. Florence tion.

Hopewood Gates, widow of Charles G. Gates, will be married next Wednesday to Vicomitesse d'Algneaux Sale Begins. Harold Lee Judd of New Britain, Cor ated talk by Irvin S. Cobb, Car-tan Life Insurance Company, Mrs. Ben Ali Haggin, a director of the Mrs. Ben All Haggin, a deceler of the plans of the league of America, announced predagogical Society, dinner, Ho-7, P. M.

League, dinner, Hotel Astor, 7:30
Society, lecture, 4 P. M.
Society, lecture,

Peabody Institute of Baltimore for No.

The total for the session was $2,250, making a grand total for the Joline collection of $12,592.

TO AID SCHOOL ART LEAGUE.

Mrs. Henderson Invites Friends to Hear Work Explained.

Mrs. Harold G. Henderson of $2 Irving for $250.

The total for the session was for the afternoon of January 26 to attend The sale continues this afternoon of January 26 to attend a meeting at her house in the interest of school museum cooperative work. At this meeting the work done by the School Art League will be explained by Miss Helen Greenleaf, the recently appointed docent, who speaks daily to children in the public schools on the great museum collections, Miss Greenleaf takes parties of children each week through the museum. Dr. James P. Haney, director of art in the high schools, will show how this work total for the session was $12,015. The sale continues to-day.

Burlesque at Grand Opera House. After a long period of presenting legiti-mate dramatic offerings and stock company plays the Grand Opera House, Twenty-third street and Eighth avenue, the loe was never in better cond the toboggan slide is just right.

gold lace skirt which had been made at Arras for the Empress Marie Louise, No was of an empire pattern with vertica fern leaf stripes and rows of the emblem atic bees. The corsage for the skirt is In the last session of the Joline library bought four flounces of old lace that had sale at the Anderson galleries yesterday the best price was $260, paid by the experts during the exhibition, paying $800 for a point d'Arexhibition, paying $800 for a point d'Ar-1276, the "Etched Work of Whistler," gentan flounce, No. 127; $750 for a flounce by Edward G. Kennedy.
Other sales were: No. 1268, the fourth $1,000 for No. 129, a point d'Alencon other sales were "Compleat Angler," to J. flounce, and $600 for No. 146, and Drake, for $110; No. 1218, first edition teenth century Honiton point flounce. to J. flounce, and $600 for No. 146, an eigh-

F. Drake, for $110; No. 1218, first edition of "The Virginians" with a page of the original manuscript, to W. T. Spencerly, for $200; No. 1132, "Waverly Novels," with a letter of Scott, to N. J. Bartlett & Co., for $54, and No. 1047, Barry Cornwall's manuscript history of Charles Lamb, to George D. Smith, for $1,300; No. 171, a Venetian lace table $100. cloth, to Mrs. Spreckels for $300 : No. 116. a rose point border, to Amedeo Funaro for $400; No. 119, a Venetian lace border, to Mrs. Harris for $700; No. 41, an Oriental gold Koran receptable, to Capt. J. R. Delamar for $425; No. 34, the gold box presented to Sir Robert Calder by the city of London, to Otto Bernet, agent, for $990; No. 32, a Louis Seize snuffbox, to John Getz for $300, and No. 28, a Louis equally a 7½ per cent, royalty on the exgold snuffbox, to Herbert Dupuy The total for the session was $25,890.

OPERA WAITS ON MISS FARRAR Premiere of "Madame Sans-Gene"

Dr. James P. Haney, director of art in the high schools, will show how this work of the league came to be developed, and he will also show how pupils in both elementary and high schools are being aided in practical art training by the association.

The war necessitated the abandonment of the plan, and the principals, including Julia Sanderson, Donald Brian and Jowentary and high schools are being aided in practical art training by the association.

The war necessitated the abandonment of the plan, and the plan been performed for the first time on any chief parts. The two men would have sung in Giordano's work had it been by Mrs. J. A. P. Ramsdell of Newburgh for a Louis Trelze tapestry suite of arm chairs. Edward P. O'Reilly, agent, gave $$802.50 for a Louis Quatorze tapestry panel and a Flemish verdure panel went to Mrs. L. N. Fountain for $250. The total for the session was $12.015. The sale

Twenty-third street and Eighth avenue, will give buriesques, beginning on Pebruary 1.

Fine Skating at Sleepy Hollow.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 22.—The skating season is in full swing at the Sleepy Hollow Country Club. Everybody says the ice was never in better condition and the toboggan slide is just right.

will continue to be shown throughout the shown throughout the correct of "The Critic," which opens there tors, their wives and newspaper men were present at the Wednesday rehearsal and Miss Farrar sang to them in full voice from the moment of her first entrance. The length of the programme for the Actors Fund benefit at the Century The-atrended that the century The-atrended that the rest of to-day and to-morrow will put her in condition to sing. 25 cents each.

will continue to be shown throughout the correct of "The Critic," which opens there tors, their wives and newspaper men were for "The Critic," which opens there tors, their wives and newspaper men were for "The Critic," which opens there tors, their wives and newspaper men were for "The Critic," which opens there tors, their wives and newspaper men were for "The Critic," which opens there will continue to be shown throughout the form the critic," which opens there will be given in a series of "Mather Critic," which opens there will be given in a series of mathematical to be given in a series of mathematical tors, their wives and newspaper men were for "The Critic," which opens there will be given in a series of "Mathematical Theorems and the Wednesday rehearsal and January 25. The performances of "Mathematical Theorems are remarked to the critic," which opens there will be given in a series of mathematical Theorems and the Century will be given in a series of mathematical Theorems and the Century will be given in a series of mathematical Theorems and the Century The-Actors Fund of "The Critic," which opens there will be school to the critical Theorems and the Century will be given in a series of mathematical Theorems and the Century will be given in a

TIRED SCRUBWOMEN IN LINE FOR BREAD

Twenty Marked by Hours of Toil in Office Buildings Get Free Loaves.

LEAVENED WITH WELCOME

Twenty scrubwomen snatched a half hour off between scrubbing times and came to THE SUN's bread depot at 9 First street yesterday to get a free loaf of Twenty scrubwomen with pails in their hands, twenty scrubwomen with scrubbing brushes in their pails, twenty scrubwomen in scrubbed-out clothes. twenty scrubwomen without any hars, scrubwomen with shawls over their heads, twenty scrubwomen in need of bread. They were all of these things, these twenty scrubwomen were, and they formed the biggest delegation of working women that has ever called at the little bread station just off the Bowery.

tenday at his home, 48 West Fifty-sixth street, in his seventy-second year. He was born in Breslau, Germany, and came women that has ever called at the little bread station just off the Bowery.

A few of them have been observed in the bread line from day to day, but never so many in one day, and it did Tom so many in one day, and it did Tom Merry's heart good to welcome them.

"Come in! Come in!" shouted Merry, holding the door open for the scrubwomen and their scrubbing appliances. "You're hard working women. You earn all the money you get and you need the bread. Don't I know? You wouldn't be here if you didn't. There's no fake about you—not a bit of it."

And while Merry was cherrily getting And while Merry was cherrily getting the scrubwomen in line with the other 2,000 scrubbed-out or scrubless men and women Dick Bright was doing his snare of bread distribution by handing out the loaves as fast as his hands could move. There was a package of clothing there for one of the women, and Tom Merry gave it to Mrs. Louisa Cassasa of 14 Rossevelt street, who has five children and whose husband is out of work.

This woman, like the others of her scuubhing profession, gets up at 5 A. M. to go serubbing thirty-five offices in a building near the Battery. She has to knock off work in the early pait of the afternoon because some of the thirty-five offices she cleans for a total wage of 50 cents a day have to be inhabited by the persons doing business in those women Dick Bright was doing his snare the way home, but they all don't lug their pails and mops with them."

While the twenty scrubwomen with their pails and mops were giving the bread line a more picturesque touch than it has ever had before the usual group of sightseers stood across the street and looked on. Finally two stepped out from the crowd of the curious and each handed from Marry a dallar. One said his initials

Its Present 250. The New York Botanical Garden, which already has more than 250 acres, will eventually get 150 more if the Board plan.

The committee reports that the part of Bronx Park between the northern side of Pelham avenue and the southern boundary of Pelham avenue are started to the southern boundary of Pelham avenue are started to the southern boundary of Pelham avenue are started to the southern boundary of Pelham avenue and Pelham avenue ave dary of the park should be transferred was hastened by an attack of lung trouble. o the Botanical Garden, it being stipu-ated that the grounds shall be open to he public every day, as before, and that five acre plot may be set aside for base-

LIEBLER PLAY FOR MOVIES.

Court Approves Contract to Produce Dramatization of "Audrey." With the consent of Judge Augustus Hand of the United States District

N. Hand of the United States District Court Irving Dittenhoffer, receiver for the Liebler Company, is to enter into a contract with the Famous Players Film Company to produce Harriet Ford's dramatipany to produce Harriet Ford's dramati-

the author and playwright are to share T

FROHMAN CANCELS PARIS PLAN. Vaudeville Theatre Contract Lost Because of War.

Charles Frohman was obliged yesterday

Now Set for Monday Night.

"Madame Sans-Gene," the new opera of Umberto Giordano, which was to have of Umberto Giordano, which was to have was to send on from London.

to cancel his contract with the Vaudeville Theatre, Paris, for the production there this spring of a musical comedy which he was to send on from London.

Sale of Modern Paintings at Ander-The war necessitated the abandonmen aew play, which will be under the direction of Frank Vernon, producer of "My Isabey.

W. C. Steele gave $950 for No. 65.

W. C. Steele gave $950 for No. 65.

This Afternoon at 2:30 American Art Galleries

Madison Square South, New York

Concluding Session of

The Duc D'Avaray Collection More Than Thirty Rare and Fine

17th and 18th Century Tapestries and other Valuable Artistic Property

The sale will be conducted by MR. THOMAS E. KIRBY assisted by Mr. Otto Bernet, of THE AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Mgrs. 6 Fast 23d Street, Madison Sq. South, New York

GUSTAVUS SIDENBERG.

Many Years a Member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Gustavus Sidenberg, for many years was born in Breslau, Germany, and came to this country when a boy. His father established a business in New Bedford, Mass., which was given up after a few years, and the family moved to New York. Mr. Sidenberg, his father and two brothers, Henry and Richard, started the firm of G. Sidenberg & Co., at Fifth average and Seventeenth street, importers of nue and Seventeenth street, importers ladies' neckwear and laces. Mr. Siden ladies' neckwear and laces. Mr. Sidenberg withdrew from the firm in 1898, soon after bought a seat on the Stock Exchange, and entered the brokerage firm of Sidenberg & Kraus, which is now Kraus Bros., the senior partner having withdrawn about eight years ago. Mr. Sidenberg retained his seat on the exchange until his death and kent offices. hange until his death, and kept offices it 66 Broadway.

He was married twice, his first wife being Theresa Goldsmith, who died about six years ago. In 1911 he married The-resa Gumbinner, who survives him.

MISS ANNA WARNER

Author of "The Wide, Wide World" Dies at the Age of $7.

ner, the authoress, died at her home in Highland Falls this morning, aged 87 five offices she cleans to be inhabited of 50 cents a day have to be inhabited by the persons doing business in those offices. Then she goes back to them when the persons doing business in those offices quit for the day, and she scrubs late into the night.

"It's my opinion," said Tom Merry to Dick Bright in a proud tone, "that we have fifty scrubwomen in our bread line. have fifty scrubwomen in our bread line.

By the persons doing business in those offices. She was born in New York city, the daughter of Henry Warner and Anna M. Bartlett.

Anna Warner wrote jointly with her sister Susan several books, the most popular of which was a novel entitled "The Wide, Wide World." They adopted literary work after their father had lost the greater part of his fortune in litigation.

Bible class thirtyon greater part of his fortune in litigation.

The sisters started a Bible class thirty five years ago for West Point cadets, and it proved so popular that during recent years 100 cadets went weekly to the Constitution Island classes. The island was deeded to the Government by the sisters a few years ago for Military Academs

Williamsburg. He studied in the College of McAneny Wants 150 Acres Added to Physicians and Surgeons and in the Island College Hospital. He was a in Masonic affairs. His wife and a daugh of Estimate makes a land transfer recommended yesterday by George McAneny schairman of the committee on city Small, 81 years old, widow of Sam Small, the widely known Southern evanges of the committee on city small, the widely known Southern evanges.

Mrs. Samuel Small.

Mrs. Emma Bornham

Mrs. Emma Burnham, 95, widow Lyman S. Burnham, a partner f Gen. Edward L. Molineux :

Mrs. Anna Raines.

Capt. James H. Toomer.

NORWOLK, Jan. 22.—Capt. James H. comer, 80 years old, vice-president of the and playwright are to share Toomer, 80 years old, vice-president of the great cent. royalty on the exMerchants and Mechanics Bank of Portsmouth, died in his home there 40-day, residence, 987 Madison avenue, Helen

David Harvey Goodell. ANTRIM, N. H., Jan. 22.—David Harvey

Goodell, 70 years old, ex-Governor of New Hampshire, died in his home here to-day after a short illness.

son's Totals $15,124.

A picture of an Arab Sheik upon a superb white horse in gay trappings brought $4,000 at the sale of modern paintings last night in the Anderson Galleries. It was by Adolf Schreyer, No. 61 leries. It was by Adolf Schreyer, No. 61 in the catalogue, and Robert Fenning Vicomtesse d'Algneaux Sale Begins.

The sale of art objects belonging to the Vicomtesse d'Aigneaux began yesterday at Silo's Fifth avenue art galleries. The best price of the session, $1,080, was paid best price of the session, $1,080, was paid by Mrs. J. A. P. Ramsdell of Newburgh by Mrs. J. A. P coid a week ago. A general rehearsal of the opera was called for last Sunday at noon, but Miss Farrar was compelled to remain at home and the rehearsal was carried on without her.

On Monday she went through a full rehearsal of the opera and on Wednesday the final dress rehearsal took place. Miss Farrar's singing on Monday was several times interrupted by fits of coughing and her physician directed her to sing sotto voce on Wednesday. About 200 people including members of the company, directors, their wives and newspaper men were resulted in the design of the Mathattan of the shown throughout the solution of Frank Vernon, producer of "My Lady's Dress."

A new song, "Play Me That Tune," was introduced as the performance of "Life" at the 100th performance of "Life" at the 100th performance of "Life" at the Manhattan Opera House last night at the Princess and agents of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company were present.

W. C. Steele gave $950 for No. 26, the "Cavaller," by Eugene Isabey.

W. C. Steele gave $950 for No. 65, "Forest at Fontainebleau," by Scartinople, by J. L. Meissonier, and the Manhattan Opera House last night at the Princes and agents of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company were present.

When the "Cavaller," by Eugene 18abey.

W. C. Steele gave $950 for No. 65, "Forest at Fontainebleau," by Rousseau; the House last night at the Princes and Spring for No. 65, "Springing of The No. 65, "Springing of The Nativity," by Baudry, and Mr. Fayen bought No. 63, "Shepherdess and Sheep," by Millet, for $310.

Other prices were: No. 55, "Arab Reconnoitring." by Jules Dupre, to W. H. Stalker for $300, No. 55, "Arab Reconnoitring." by Schreyer, to J. B. Fairchild for $300, No. 55, "Arab Reconnoitring." by Schreyer, to J. B. Fairchild for $300, No. 55, "Arab Reconnoitring." by Schreyer, to J. B. Fairchild for $300, No. 55, "Arab Reconnoitring." by Schreyer, to J. B. Fairchild for $300, No. 55, "Arab Reconnoitring." by Schreyer, to J. B. Fairchild for $300, No. 55, "Arab Reconnoitring." by Schreyer, to J. B

The total for this collection, in which

MERICAN ART GALLERIES MADESON SOLARE SOUTH NEW YORK CITY member of the Stock Exchange, died yes-

Monday Afternoon Next January 25th, at 3:30 o'clock

Antique Furniture

Rugs and other interesting Art Property

The Private Collection of Mrs. Albert Tucker Sharon, Connecticut.

"It is not a very large collection, which per-aps increases our enjoyment of ft. The room i which it is placed has an atmosphere. It effects a discerning taste."—ROYAL CORTISSOZ N THE TRIBUNE.

The Sale will be conducted by MR. THOMAS E. KIRBY assisted by Mr. Otto Bernet of the American Art Association, Managers

NEWBURGH, Jan. 22 .- Miss Anna War- J. H. CHOATE IS 83 TO-MORROW.

Appleby and daughter of residence, 216 West Fifty-ninth street,

Funeral services will be held at his late residence, 933 Fifth avenue, Tuesday, January 26, at 2 P. M. Funeral private.

ary 24, at 2 o'clock P. M. Carriages will be in waiting at Fairfield, Conn. Station on arrival of train leaving Grand Central Station at 9 A. M.

Notice of funeral hereafter. Philadelphia papers please copy. NOE -On Thursday, January 21, 1915, at his residence, the Nevada, Sixty-ninth street and Broadway, Henry Martyn Noe, in the seventy-first year of his age. Funeral service will be held at the Nevada Saturday, January 23, at 11 A. M.

ment private.

10, 1915, Andrew Wheeler Phillips, uneral service will be held in St. Thomas's Church, New Haven, at 1:15

P. M., Saturday, January 23, P. M., Saturday, January 23.

ROBERTSON.—Annie Gordou
Services at "THE FUNERAL CHURCH."

241 West Twenty-third (Frank E. Campbeil Building), Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Friends invited.

S.DENBERG.—On Friday afternoon, January 22, at his residence, 48 West Fifty-sixth street, Gustavus, beloved bushesd of Theresa Sidenberg.

of Theresa Sidenberg. WARNER -At Highland Palls, N. Y., early the Military Cemetery at West Point N. Y. on Sunday, January 24, 1915, 2:30 P. M. Carriages will meet tr leaving New York at 11:10 A. M.. New York Central and Hudson River

f the Rev. Henry Homer Washburn uddenly, at 12 Tirreli street, Worcester Mass., on January 22, 1915

Adolph F. Wehner, in his fifty-sixth

Interment New Haven, Conn.

York APPLEBY —On Wednesday, January 20, ed in 1915, May H., beloved wife of Edgar S.

HARKNUSS.—Suddenly, at Hollister, Cat., Sunday, January 17, Lamon Vanderburg Harkness, aged 64 years.

MEEKER .- At Greenfield Hill, Conn., January 20, 1915, John W., husband of Jennie Foster Meeker, aged 42 years. Funeral services will be held at his late residence, Greenfield Hill, Sunday, Janu-

MONTGOMERY.—Suddenly, of heart fature, on Friday, January 22, 1915, at Flush-ing, L. I., John Howard Montgomery, eldest son of the late Rev. Dr. Her E. and Margaret Lynch Montgomery

Church of the Resurrection, Seventy-fourth street near Park avenue, on Sunday, January 24, at 2:30 P. M. Inter-

OTIS.—On January 4, at Dublin, Ireland, Harrison Gray Otis. Funeral at Emmanuel Church, Boston, January 25 at 11 A. M.S.

Friday morning, January 22, 1915, Anna Bartlet, daughter of the late Henry W. and Anna B. Warner. Funeral services in the Cadet Chapel of

WASHBURN .- Mary Elizabeth, beloved wife

Funeral services at his late residence, 865 Clifton avenue, Newark, N. J., on Sun-day afternoon, January 24, at 2 o'clock.